Applicants must provide the following essential information before their membership can be accepted. The lack of possession of a current medical or revalidation will not prevent commencement or renewal of club membership but applicants must state clearly their current situation.

What is the renewal date for your medical examination?

What is the date for your licence renewal/revalidation?

For new PPL license holder applicants please state name of previous club or training organisation
Club or T/O:

Applicants are reminded that they have a legal obligation to ensure that they have met both the European Aviation Safety Agency and the club's insurance company requirements.

Have you had any accidents, claims, or CAA violations including incursions relating to an aircraft in the past five years? If you have, full details are required as to date of incident, aircraft registration, details of any accident, amount paid for repair.

For the club insurance to be valid, the insurers need full details of all circumstances that might influence their decision on whether to insure, and for how much.

Enter Incidents. If none, put None

I declare that I wish to commence/renew my membership with the London Transport Flying Club and that as far as I am aware, I have met all the lawful requirements to act as pilot-incommand of all the aeroplanes that the club operates. Signed
